A Definitive Guide to Food and Wine Pairings

September 29, 2020, 6:00 p.m.

Registration Fee: $20.00

Wine Box: $62.25

From the University of Tennessee Culinary Institute

Another fun and exciting food & wine pairing with Jason Drotar.

What a fantastic opportunity to learn how food and wine work together to create fabulous flavors.

Tonight's Wines:

- Avalon Flint & Steel 2019 Sauvignon Blanc, Napa Valley, California
- Rutz Cellars Proprietors Reserve 2018 Pinot Noir, Russian River Valley, California
- Frei Brothers 2017 Cabernet Sauvignon, Alexander Valley, California
- J. Lohr Estates South Ridge 2017 Syrah, Paso Robles, California
- Bex Winery 2018 Riesling, Nahe, Germany

Wines provided by Toddy's Liquor & Wine
4821 Kingston Pike Knoxville, TN 37919
Special Offering for all 5 wines, $62.25 plus tax- 27% Savings!

The UT Culinary Institute will provide a specially designed food tray for creating an amazing food pairing, including a variety of Fresh vegetables with a serious ranch dressing; Special sausages & cheese; Mushroom Duxelle; Two styles of salsa for comparison and Chocolate; Registration fee: $20.00.
To add the Food Tray $25.00 optional

Toddy's Wine and Spirits, 4821 Kingston Pike, Knoxville, TN 37919 has assembled a special package with 5 wines at a 27% discount for you. Invite your friends over to share the experience with you in the comfort of your home.

Registration closes September 24th

Registration information: https://tinyurl.com/y4hs47tn

PLEASE make sure you receive a confirmation when registering online

Please contact Terri with any questions. You will receive information regarding pick up dates, times and locations after your registration is received.

Jason Drotar has extensive experience in the wine industry including 13 years as a sommelier working in Orlando, Las Vegas and currently Maryville and Knoxville. IG: somme_mojo.

If you would like to purchase more than one wine package please order in advance with Toddy's, Phone 865-584-0577.

THE UNIVERSITY OF TENNESSEE KNOXVILLE

CULINARY INSTITUTE

TODDY'S LIQUOR & WINE SINCE 1961